WIC is a supplemental nutrition program that could help you save money on your food bill

DID YOU KNOW THAT:
- The WIC Program serves pregnant women, breastfeeding women, postpartum women & children birth to age 5 yr.
- A parent or guardian can enroll an infant or child aged 1 through 4 years of age.
- The WIC Program has very liberal Eligibility Income Guidelines.
- A family of 4 can earn up to $47,638.

DID YOU KNOW THAT Families who qualify may receive Food Coupons for:

☑ Infant formula, baby food
☑ milk, eggs, cheese,
☑ whole wheat bread, or pasta
☑ fruits & vegetables, juice
☑ brown rice, corn tortillas, oatmeal
☑ beans, peanut butter
☑ cereal
☑ tuna, salmon

For More Information Call Your Local VCHD Clinic Site:

Vermilion County Health Department
200 S. College Suite A. 217-431-2662
Danville, IL 61832 Press 1

“This institution is an equal opportunity provider".